

SRC Hacks II

Code of Conduct

SRC Hacks II is all-inclusive—we strongly believe that every single person deserves to hack in a safe, welcoming, and fun environment.

Harassment includes but is not limited to derogatory verbal or written comments related to gender, sex, age, sexual preferences, disability, physical appearance, race, religion, social class, economic status, veteran status, sexual images, deliberate intimidation, following, stalking, harassing photography or recording, inappropriate physical contact, and unwanted sexual attention.

Harassment of any kind is not permitted at SRC Hacks II. Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior whatsoever are expected to comply immediately.

Sponsors, judges, mentors, volunteers, organizers, SRC Hacks II staff, and anyone else at the event are subject to this anti-harassment policy.

If a participant engages in harassing behavior, SRC Hacks II reserves the right to take any action it deems appropriate, including warnings or expulsion from the event with no eligibility for reimbursement or refund of any type.

If you feel in any way uncomfortable or require assistance, do not hesitate to talk to an organizer.
